Major in Latino & Latin American Studies
The major in Latino & Latin American Studies consists of a minimum of 37 credit hours of course work. In addition, intermediate proficiency in a language spoken in Latin America, though not a prerequisite for major study, must be demonstrated for completion of the major for students focusing on Latin America, & proficiency in Spanish is strongly suggested for those focusing on Latinos in the U.S.

Minor in Latino Studies
The interdisciplinary minor in Latino Studies advances a critical understanding of Latinos as an integral social & cultural component of the U.S. society & of the American hemisphere. Since it employs interdisciplinary research methods, this minor enhances a variety of majors and fields of study.

Minor in Latin American Studies
The interdisciplinary minor in Latin American Studies offers a basic understanding of the peoples & cultures of Latin America & the Caribbean, their histories & contemporary economic, social, political problems, & their relations with the United States.
